SUMMARY OF

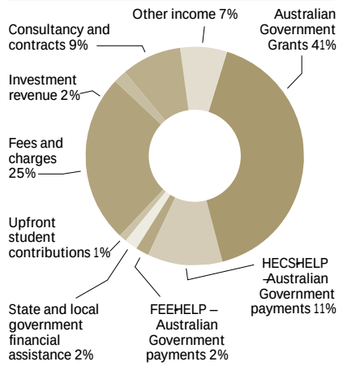
FINANCIAL INFORMATION

As per the financial statements, the University recorded a consolidated deficit of $15.5m for 2016. This compares to a consolidated surplus of $58.5m in 2015.

[illegible]

Underlying EBITDA

Revenue: University of Queensland parent 2016



[7] Revenue received for the teaching of the
[8] Revenue received from feepaying students.
[9] Revenue consists of funding through ðint Research Sustainable Research Excellence in Universities.
[10] Revenue includes capital grants and research funding from Australian Research Council and National Health and Medical Research Council.
[11] Revenue includes nongovernment competitive grant research funding.
[12] Revenue includes investment income, donations and scholarships, other fees and charges, and sales of goods and services.

0284897 2h(p6Fe)s00T64S7mh, 5l8035d. 2h(31 Th/T12000e 6Fix72!5)1 cl03 d9

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]			